Scavenger Hunt

May 31 - June 6 2021

Welcome Scavenger Hunters!

Planning on logging those kms during Go By Bike Week but not sure where to go? We've got you covered!

Without our usual Celebration Stations to visit, Capital Bike has restarted our popular Neighbourhood Rides program with a few special rides released during Go By Bike Week 2021. To complete this Scavenger Hunt, solve the clues below, taking pictures at your favourite locations, then share them on social media with the hashtag "#GoByBikeWeek2021" to be entered to win prizes. Otherwise, you can send in photo submissions to james@biketowork.ca.

Log This Ride!

Log rides at www.GoByBikeBC.ca ! It's easy! You can even link your Strava account to make tracking kms even easier.

How the rides work:

For each Discovery Ride and Scavenger Hunt we provide both an information sheet including clues and points of interest, as well as a custom Google Map to help make finding the route easier. Find this ride's google map here:

Beach Access App (Reciprocity Publishing) is a proud sponsor of Go By Bike Week: The Beach Access App locates over 400 public foreshore access points around the Saanich Peninsula. Perfect for exploring by bike.

Please follow the COVID-19 Provincial Health Officer guidelines and protocols, as well as any local municipal guidelines in your community, while participating in Go By Bike activities.

Clues

1. Located on the corner of Bear Hill Road and Oldfield Road, Dan's Farm & Country Market is filled with local, seasonal fresh fruits and veggies at this time of year. What is the largest fruit or vegetable painted on the sign above the market's entrance?
2. A couple of blocks north of Dan's Market on Oldfield Road is a blueberry farm. What is the name of this farm?
3. Once named the Urban Bee, this honey farm has recently embraced a new name to go along with new wild honeys. What is the new name of this honey farm?
4. Tod Inlet has a deep history, and significance, to the W̱SÁNEĆ (Saanich) First Nations. What is the SENĆOŦEN name for this inlet? Find the official sign in the park that explains the naming of this place.
5. Take a ride along this quiet multi-use trail, the 'Willow Way Trail,' between Keating Cross Road and Wallace Drive to get to the next clue. Can you spot any willow trees along this path?
6. This outdoor rock climbing wall along Stelly's Cross Road has raised some of Canada's top rock climbers.
7. Gathering place for farmers to share and showcase their summer harvests each year.
8. This Saanich farm is known for its organic produce and bringing small-scale community farmers together. Co-owned since 2002 by Heather Stretch, Robin Tunnicliffe, and Rachel Fisher.

Clues

9. Mountain known by the W̱SÁNEĆ Nation as ŁÁU, WELNEW
'Place of refuge/escape,' marking the story of the great flood that took place here thousands of years ago.

10. Specializing in corn farming in Saanich for nearly a century, in 2019 this farm introduced 10 new varieties of corn to their farm stands. What is the name of this old farm?

Note: for our next three beach clues, we've partnered with www.beachaccess.ca, which locates over 400 public foreshore access points around Greater Victoria. To enter to win free access to the app, include a photo of your bike at the beach in your ride submission!

11. This Regional Park is located on the east coast of the Saanich Peninsula and was established as a Park in 1966. This place is home to shifting sand dunes, saltmarshes, and a number of rare plant and bird species.

12. I am a shorebird that eats oysters and lays my eggs on a special simple kind of nest called a "scrape" – basically a few camouflaged pebbles and rocks. Can you spot me anywhere along this seashore?

13. Bivalve species that Coastal First Nations peoples have "gardened" for thousands of years. These marine creatures can be found along the intertidal zones of Saanich Inlet.

Congratulations! You have completed the Central Saanich Scavenger Hunt. Remember to post a photo from your ride using #GoByBikeWeek2021 on social media, or send a photo to james@biketowork.ca to be entered to win prizes for this Neighbourhood Ride.
